

NEW FACE AT BLACK COUNTRY INSOLVENCY PRACTICE

Mei France has joined growing Stourbridge insolvency firm, John D Travers & Company as a senior insolvency administrator.

Previously with the Birmingham office of PKF (UK) LLP, maths graduate and CPI qualified Mei has several years' experience in all forms of corporate and personal insolvency.

"We specialise in business and corporate insolvency and turnaround," principal John Travers said. "And Mei's background fits perfectly."

"I really welcome the opportunity to join a progressive firm like John D Travers & Company, which specialises in giving no-nonsense, practical advice to businesses that are experiencing difficult times," Mei said.
